Celebrating the Legacy of JP White, II

"But our citizenship is in heaven, and from it we await a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, who will transform our lowly body to be like his glorious body, by the power that enables him even to subject all things to himself." Philippians 9:86-21

JP "King " White, II was born on August 8, 1987 to Darnell T. and Yvonne J. White. He was a skilled musician and song writer, and willingly shared his talents with several churches in central Florida.

JP was employed at Church Street Bakery from 2011 to 2013. After his tenure with the bakery he briefly worked with Randstad Staffing performing various job assignments for approximately one year. In 2014, he obtained employment at Westgate Resorts as a OPC Marketing Rep. After working there for one year he transitioned to Westgate Lakes housekeeping department. JP resigned from Westgate Resorts to pursue his lifelong dream of becoming an entrepreneur.

JP began working at the Nike Outlet to expand his marketing and entrepreneurial skills while starting his own independent Funnel Cake business. He worked hard to obtain the necessary contracts to work with local agencies to start his business. Prior to his death, he was scheduled to begin classes to get his license. JP was preceded in death by his father, Darnell T. White.

JP leaves to cherish his memories: mother, Evangelist Yvonne J. White; sisters, Ginean LeTang, Faith White; brothers, Lamont Kaigler, DonZavier Kaigler, Darnell White, II, David White; Grandfather, Bishop Larnie B. White and Family; uncle, Dr. Larnie G. (Helen) White; other aunts, uncles, and many friends.

But God, O, but God. He is able to do exceedingly, abundantly above all things... Looking for me with no pain in mind it might only cause more. Looking for me with no rainy days and it really start to pour. When you believe you might doubt some times if you trust in God, He'll always work it out. Receive your share, and what comes your way live for tomorrow and not yesterday. There's going to be sunshine, and rain as well. When everything you know says 'don't' believe, I wanna know. Looking for the sunshine, and it starts to rain. The things that pause to give you joy always starts with pain, comes with pain, cause you pain.

Romans 12: 1-21

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road, and the sun has set for me. I want no rites in a gloom-filled room, Why cry for a soul set free? Miss me a little, but not too long, And not with a head bowed low. Remember the love that once was shared, Miss me, but let me go. For this is a journey we all must take, and I am on my way. The drama began when we first were born, I've finished my part in the play. When you are lonely and sad at heart, Go to the friends we know, and bury your sorrow in doing good deeds, Miss me, but let me go.
