

Felicia Consuelo Gale Eteuati

Photo:

Date of Birth:

February 13 1983

Felicia Consuelo Gale Eteuati passed away on December 1, 2015. She suffered the last three months of her life trying to recover from continued illness due to complications from surgery. Felicia was born on February 13, 1983 to Richard and Carmen (Torres) Gale. She was a long awaited blessing to her parents. Being raised on Main Street in her mother's flower shop, she soon became the town baby and the employees all became her aunts. At the early age of three, she started sharing her love of music with her voice. She sang at many weddings, programs and churches. She loved dancing and reciting stories. Her desire was to become a singing ballerina when she grew up. Felicia had a big heart and learned the value of giving and compassion at an early age. She was always worried about the underdog or friends that had less than she had. She had a very contagious laugh and loved having fun with her friends. She was a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, and though she was not always active, she had a testimony and knew the power of priesthood blessings. She was never judgmental and accepted others for who they were, treating them like she wanted to be treated. Felicia married Jake (Iakopo) Eteuati on November 16, 2008. She is the mother of three sons: Blaze, Jusitce and Mykol whom she loved very much. She had one sister Mercedes (Chris) Chavez and even though they were 7 years apart, they had a very special bond. She loved her nephew Maxxtyn Chavez dearly and was excited for Mercedes' new baby to come. Her grandparents are Alan and Joyce Gale, Miguel and Consuelo Torres, and her special uncle and aunt who were "Grandpa" and "Grandma" to her were Max and Clyda Torres. Felicia is survived by her husband, sons, parents, sister, grandma Joyce Gale, grandpa Max and grandma Clyda and many uncles, aunts, cousins, and dear friends and in-laws Sofeni and Ailini Toleafoa. She was preceded in death by her grandparents Alan Gale, Miguel Torres and Consuelo Torres. We love you, Felicia, but feel comfort knowing you were welcomed into Heaven by those who love you very much and that families are forever. Funeral services will be held on Saturday, December 5, 2015 at 11:00 am at the LDS Beaver 4th Ward Chapel (220 N Main, Beaver, UT). Viewing will be held on Friday, December 4th from 6-8:00 pm at Southern Utah Mortuary (195 N 200 W, Beaver, UT). Saturday morning, December 5th, a viewing will be held at the church from 9:30-10:30 am. Interment will be in the Mountain View Cemetery under the direction of Southern Utah Mortuary.

Tribute compliments of Southern Utah Mortuary

Media data:

Date of Death:

December 1 2015

Primary State of Residence:

Utah, United States

